Signs, fleet records and operating supplies

Keep information current and matched to the way your business actually works.

Initial when ready. Cross out anything that does not apply to your business.

AREA	WHAT TO CONFIRM
Outside signs	Landlord and local approval. Permit and electrical review. Safe installation. Accurate hours and contact.	☐
Visibility	Road, entrance, parking, pickup and return are readable. Weather and traffic considered.	☐
Fleet file	Number, model, year, VIN or serial. Purchase, warranty, insurance, manuals.	☐
Fleet history	Inspection, maintenance, repair, damage, out of service, return to service, replacement planning.	☐
Operating supplies	Numbered labels. Ready / out of service tags. Logs, clipboards, lamp, batteries, basic tools.	☐

PUBLIC DISPLAY CHECK

CHECK	WHAT TO CONFIRM
Approved?	Landlord, municipality, property rules, and installation requirements reviewed as applicable.	☐
Accurate?	Hours, rates, rules, permits, directions, and contact match the current operating systems.	☐
Safe?	Display does not obstruct traffic, required notices, exits, accessibility, or movement.	☐
Appropriate?	No private information exposed. The display supports a clear professional arrival.	☐

USE THE SAME STATUS WORDS

Use the same status words on tags, logs, systems, and with your team. A unit cannot be shown as available and out of service at the same time.

Opening readiness and owner decision

A calendar date does not make the business ready. Use the checks below.

Initial when ready. Cross out anything that does not apply to your business.

SIX READY-TO-OPEN CHECKS

AREA READY WHEN	READY WHEN
Records and privacy	Customer documents locked. Staff files apart. Confidential information protected. Filing active.	☐
Technology and backups	Internet holds. Devices and printing operate. Individual access assigned. Restoration tested.	☐
Reservations and payments	Systems configured, integrated as required, proven through successful test transactions.	☐
Physical security and keys	Keys numbered and controlled. Restricted items secured. Close written.	☐
Customer area	Rates and rules accurate. Signage approved. Required permits present. Counter ready.	☐
Safety and team	Emergency equipment in place. Responsibilities assigned. Current procedures reachable.	☐

OWNER / MANAGER DECISION

DECISION WHAT IT MEANS	MEANING
Ready to open	Every essential gate is satisfied. No known issue creates unacceptable exposure.	☐
Ready with minor actions	Minor items remain. Each has an owner and a date. Remaining risk is understood.	☐
Hold opening	An essential control is incomplete, a material test failed, or uncertainty requires delay.	☐
